ABOUT ASIAN LAW COLLEGE (ALC)

Asian Law College (ALC), Noida, is one of India's premier institutions for legal education, known for its commitment to academic excellence, practical training, and producing competent legal professionals equipped for the demands of contemporary legal practice. Asian Law College (ALC), affiliated with Chaudhary Charan Singh University (CCSU), is approved by the Bar Council of India (BCI) and accredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), offering integrated B.A. LL.B. (5 year), B.Com. LL.B. (5 year) and LL.B. (3 year) programs.

ALC emphasizes multidisciplinary legal education, practical training through moot courts, legal aid camps, AIBE workshops, and partnerships like its academic collaboration with the University of Cape Town (UCT), South Africa, which provides students with international exposure, workshops, and certifications.

The institution offers a comprehensive curriculum that integrates doctrinal legal education with skills-based learning. ALC's pedagogy is designed to produce graduates who are not only well-versed in legal theory but are also adept at applied legal practice - be it litigation, transactional advisory, policy drafting, or academic research. The College actively fosters a culture of intellectual engagement through moot courts, client counselling exercises, legal aid clinics, drafting workshops, and research initiatives.

ALC also provides additional diplomas and certifications to supplement mainstream legal education, such as Diploma in Media and Entertainment Laws, Diploma in Fashion Law, Diploma in Cyber Law, Diploma in Intellectual Property Rights and certification in Personality Development and Legal Communication.

The institution takes pride in its alumni who have made significant contributions across the legal profession, corporate sector, governance, public service, and other key spheres of national development.

ABOUT THE CHAMPIONSHIP

The National Drafting Championship 2026 is a premier national-level academic competition designed to cultivate analytical thinking, structured writing, research aptitude, and problem-solving skills among participants from diverse educational backgrounds. The Championship brings together five distinct segments under one umbrella, creating a unique platform for participants to engage with contemporary legal, governance, policy, and societal issues through rigorous intellectual exercise, critical inquiry, and practical application.

Conceived as an interdisciplinary initiative, the Championship aims to encourage precision in expression, critical evaluation of complex issues, and the ability to develop well-reasoned solutions and arguments. Through participation, individuals enhance their writing, reasoning, and communication abilities while gaining exposure to real-world challenges relevant to governance, public policy, international relations, academia, law, and allied disciplines. The Championship also promotes intellectual engagement among school and university students alike, fostering a culture of research, innovation, and informed discourse across diverse fields of study.

I.CONTRACT DRAFTING

The Contract Drafting segment challenges participants to assume the role of legal counsel tasked with preparing professionally structured, commercially viable, and legally enforceable agreements based on the scenario. This segment emphasizes clarity, precision and risk allocation in contractual arrangements.

For proposition and detailed rules, kindly refer to the link below.
